DETAILED ACTION
Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-39, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Meyer et al (Hereinafter Meyer U.S. Patent: 6, 829, 368).

As per claim 1-39, Meyer discloses a publishing-playback system includes an authoring-publishing means for authoring and transmitting a protected media data to a user-application means for media-data playback with said protected media data protected by several intellectual property protection and management (IPMP) systems wherein: said authoring-publishing means includes a parametric representation, means for generating a parametric definition of IPMP tasks for attaching to said protected media data for said user-application means to receive said protected media and to response in real time to said parametric definition in applying one of said several IPMP systems.(see column 2 lines 34-67 and column 3-8 lines 1-67 and column 20 lines 28-65).

Conclusion

3. The prior art of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicants disclosure.
